In the matter of

The People (represented by Courtenay Heading)

(Plaintiffs)

David Ashford (Minister for Health and Social Care) Isle of Man
Richard Renouf (Minister for Health and Social Services) Jersey, Channel Islands
Henrietta Ewart (Director of Public Health) Isle of Man

(Defendants)

Dated: 1st September 2019

As part of the Plaintiffs case, the following positions were accepted and established as facts in law, copies of the certificates were also lodged as evidence.

1. A Common Law Court Birth Certificate for Courtenay Heading had been obtained, confirming his standing as a living man, under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court.
2. A Business Ownership Certificate for the Fictious Name (MR COURTENAY ADAM LAWRENCE HEADING) had been obtained by Courtenay Heading (the living man), confirming not only his ownership but that it fell under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court.

In relation to the Plaintiffs case, Courtenay Heading presented his Statement of Claim on behalf of the people and gave evidence, this evidence included affidavits, information, paperwork and a power point presentation.

The Defendants having been served with a Court Summons, Court Information and a copy of the case against them (Statement of Claim), failed to appear. The Defendants failed to submit a written defence against the claims made against them and failed to take up the opportunity of a Pre-Trial Conference to resolve matters before the hearing.

During the trial, Courtenay Heading presented the case for the Plaintiffs and submitted his request for the following:

1. A guilty verdict against the Defendants for various crimes that they had committed against the people.
2. An order to remove the Defendants from their positions.
3. An order to have the Defendants barred from holding public or private health care roles in the future.
4. If the above was granted, a request was made that the jury should consider any financial implications that may be relevant.
5. An order to ensure that HPV vaccinations are ceased immediately until such times as their safety is proven to the satisfaction of the Common Law Court.

In relation to the Statement of Claim and the supporting evidence presented this day by Courtenay Heading on behalf of the Plaintiffs, we the Jury, consisting of twelve reasonably minded men and women and having considered all the evidence presented at this hearing, issue the following orders:

1. We the jury issue an order which confirms that the Defendants have acted unlawfully and criminally in relation to the following crimes:

An Abuse of Position

The Defendants, by their failure to obtain consent, authority and/or jurisdiction have committed crimes against the people and have used their positions and statutory legislation to target, innocent living men and living women.

Common Law Courts

Great Britain & International

‘Borrowing from the declaration of our ancestors, made in Arbroath in 1320, we declare that, as long as but a hundred of us remain alive, never will we on any conditions be brought under mandatory rule by legal statute.’

Common Law Court - Lawful Notice

‘No living men or women who have confirmed their standing under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court will be subjected to statutory control, until such time that the state can confirm that they have established a superior claim to that of the Common Law Court.’

The use of Common Law Court identification confirms that living men and women stand under the jurisdiction of the Common Law Court. It therefore becomes a criminal offence to criminally coerce the individual identified into the statutory system and a crime against the people. Anyone responsible for criminal coercion will be held personally liable in their private capacity and will have to answer to the people.’

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948

Article 12

No one shall be subjected to arbitrary interference with his privacy, family, home or correspondence, nor to attacks upon his honour and reputation. Everyone has the right to the protection of the law against such interference or attacks.

Criminal Coercion

The Defendants are guilty of the unlawful act of attempting to force living men and living women to do something, by way of accepting a legal fiction which they wanted to attach to them.

The legal fictions (Fictitious Names) are owned by living men and living women, this has been established as a FACT IN LAW. Confirmation of this fact has already been established during the following trial in Paisley Sheriff Court (Case Ref. PA18004245) and at a previous Common Law Court hearing.

Fraud

The deliberate deception used to obtain an unlawful gain, this is applicable to the use of the legal fiction and the authority and jurisdiction which had been taken, but not established by the Defendants.

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948

Article 4

No one shall be held in slavery or servitude; slavery and the slave trade shall be prohibited in all their forms. (this would include the use of the legal fiction).

Failure to accept the positions of a living man and living woman

The Defendants are guilty of failing to acknowledge the positions of living men and living women. These men and women have confirmed their standing by recording their births with the Common Law Court and therefore stand under the authority and jurisdiction of the Common Law Court.

Note:

The Declaration of the Common Law Court

‘For many years now, men and women have been subjected to criminal and fraudulent behaviour by the state's actions which have been imposed upon us, against our will, by both criminal coercion and legal deception. Fear and fiction have thus combined to bind us into slavery.’

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948

Article 7

All are equal before the law and are entitled without any discrimination to equal protection of the law. All are entitled to equal protection against any discrimination in violation of this Declaration and against any incitement to such discrimination.

Article 10

Everyone is entitled in full equality to a fair and public hearing by an independent and impartial tribunal, in the determination of his rights and obligations and of any criminal charge against him.

Article 20

No one may be compelled to belong to an association.

Refusal to comply with common law

Under common law, Defendants are accountable for their own behaviour as living men and living women for crimes committed against other living men and living women.

Common Law Courts

Great Britain & International

The Defendants cannot hide behind the statutory system while being paid by the people.

Refusal to comply with statutory legislation

The Defendants are guilty of Malfeasance.

The Defendants work for corporations that have no authority over living men and living woman.

In proceeding with HPV vaccinations, the Defendants have failed to identify the parties involved, living men/women or legal fictions. The Defendants have NO CONSENT, AUTHORITY OR JURISDICTION and are causing harm, loss and injury.

Note:

The Universal Declaration of Human Rights 1948

Article 18

Everyone has the right to freedom of thought, conscience and religion; this right includes freedom to change his religion or belief, and freedom, either alone or in community with others and in public or private, to manifest his religion or belief in teaching, practice, worship and observance.

Refusal to comply with United Nations Human Rights Charter 1948

The information above confirms that the Defendants have failed to comply with the above charter and in doing so have endangered their countries positions as signatories.

The Defendants in doing so are also guilty of committing crimes against the people.

Refusal to comply with the Nuremburg Code 1947

The Defendants are guilty of failing to comply with Codes 1, 2, 4, 5, and 10 and in doing so are causing 'medical cruelty' on an unimaginable scale.
